

University of Parma, Aula Magna, 19-20 June 2017

New Technologies as Shields and Swords: Challenges for International, European Union and Domestic Law

PROGRAMME

Monday, 19 June 2017

AULA MAGNA, PALAZZO CENTRALE

10.30 Welcome address and introduction to the workshop

Laura Pineschi | CSEIA President
Maurizio Arcari | QIL Editor-in-chief

11.00 Panel 1: New Technologies and 'Borders'

Chair: Antonello Tancredi | University of Palermo
QIL Managing Editor

The intensification of the challenges posed to the jus in bello by drone programmes (UCAV)

Rebecca Mignot-Mahdavi | European University Institute

Legal challenges related to the use of new technologies in migration control

Philip Hanke and Daniela Vitiello | University of Bern and University of Roma Tre

Cross-border surrogacy: the role of the European Court of Human Rights

Mario Gervasi | Sapienza University of Rome

Questioning the reach of the right to be forgotten beyond European Union borders

Alberto Miglio | University of Turin

Q&A

13.00 Buffet Lunch

14.30 Panel 2: The Age of Big Data: International and European Perspectives

Chair: Gabriele Della Morte | Catholic University of Milan - QIL Editorial Board

Cross-border data flows 'reshaped': recent evolutions within the European Union

Stefano Saluzzo | Valle d'Aosta University

Asylum seekers and irregular 'migrants' data: some reflections on the possible use and misuse of the EURODAC database

Serena Bolognese | University of Modena and Reggio Emilia

The use of databases in criminal co-operation within the European Union

Stefano Montaldo | University of Turin

Q&A

16.30 Coffee break

E-health and medical apps: a comparative analysis of domestic regulatory frameworks

Monica Cappelletti | Dublin City University

Life after death: the transmission of digital assets. An Italian perspective.

Francesco Mastroberardino | University of Modena and Reggio Emilia

Q&A

17.30 Keynote speech: Interstitial Europe

Deirdre Curtin | European University Institute

Tuesday, 20 June 2017

AULA MAGNA, PALAZZO CENTRALE

9.30 Panel 3: The (Mis)use of New Technologies: Responsibility Issues and the Role of Private Actors

Chair: Paolo Palchetti | University of Macerata
QIL Managing Editor

Attribution of cyber conducts to a subject of international law

François Delerue | Institute for Strategic Studies of the French Military School

Education and training of armed forces in the age of high-tech hostilities

Marco Longobardo | University of Messina and University of Westminster

Q&A

10.30 Coffee break

11.00 Hybrid governance or ... nothing? The EU Code of Conduct for Countering Illegal Speech Online

Karolina Podstawa | EIUC Venice

Bringing social networks to court for complicity in terrorism

Alessandro Bufalini | University of Viterbo

Protection of personal reputation in the social network era: new challenges

Massimiliano Lanzini | University of Parma

Q&A

12.30 Keynote speech: Destruction and protection of cultural heritage in the digital era

Ana Filipa Vrdoljak | University Technology of Sydney

13.00 Buffet Lunch

14.30 Keynote speech (video): The use of big data in the practice of torture survivors' rehabilitation

Lorna McGregor | University of Essex

15.00 Panel 4: New Technologies in International and Domestic Adjudication

Chair: Beatrice Bonafè | Sapienza University of Rome
QIL Editorial Board

Killings to the sounds of trumpets, dying in the silence of courts: the impacts of avoidance doctrines on targeted killings

Luca Gervasoni | University of Milan-Bicocca

The development of driverless cars and the future of cross-border traffic accident litigation

Nicolò Nisi | University of Halle-Wittenberg

Enforcing rights through electronic tools

Dominic Staiger | University of Zurich

Q&A

16.30 Challenges Ahead (video):

Giovanni Buttarelli | European Data Protection Supervisor

17.00 Conclusive remarks

Cesare Pitea | University of Parma - QIL Editorial Board

17.30 Next steps: indications to contributors

Elena Carpanelli | University of Parma (Scientific coordinator)

Nicole Lazzarin | University of Florence (Scientific coordinator)